Are there any guarantees?

This fund is being offered under an insurance contract. It comes with guarantees that may protect your investment if the markets go down. The MER includes the insurance cost for the guarantee. For details, please refer to the information folder and contract.

Who is this fund for?

A person who is investing for the medium to longer term and seeking potential for interest income in their portfolio from international bonds and is comfortable with low to moderate risk. Since the fund invests in foreign denominated bonds its value is affected by changes in interest rates and foreign exchange rates between currencies.

Notes

Canada Life Investments assumed portfolio management responsibilities for the International Bond Fund (Laketon) in July 2011. Effective May 2012 the name of the fund changed to the International Bond Fund (CLI). Effective October 2012 the fund invests primarily in fixed-income securities, issued by governments, corporations and international agencies anywhere in the world. Prior to that date the fund invested primarily in Canadian fixed income foreign denominated securities issued by governments and corporations.

How has the fund performed?

This section tells you how the fund has performed over the past 10 years. Returns are after the MER has been deducted.

It's important to note that this doesn't tell you how the fund will perform in the future. Also, your actual return will depend on your personal tax situation.

Average return

A person who invested $1,000 in the fund on December 31, 2009 would have $1,261.38 on December 31, 2019. This works out to an average of 2.35% a year.

Year-by-year returns (%)

This chart shows how the fund has performed in each of the past 10 years. In the past 10 years, the fund was up in value 6 years and down in value 4 years.

How risky is it?

The value of your investments can go down. Please see the Fund risks section of the information folder for further details.

How much does it cost?

The following table shows the fees and expenses you could pay to invest in or redeem units of the fund.

1. Sales charges

| Sales charge option | What you pay | How it works |
|---------------------|--|---|
| No-load option | There is no fee to invest or redeem units. | <ul style="list-style-type: none">You can redeem units without paying a deferred sales charge.You can switch to units of other available funds under the contract at any time. |

2. Ongoing expenses

The MER includes the management fee and operating expenses of the fund. The MER includes the insurance cost for the guarantee. You do not pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the return you get on your investment. For details about how the guarantee works, see the applicable guarantee section of your insurance contract.

| Guarantee policy | MER (Annual rate as a % of the fund's value) |
|---|--|
| 75% maturity and 100% death benefit guarantee | 2.38 |

Trailing commission

Canada Life pays a trailing commission of up to one per cent of the value of your investments for the services and advice provided to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fee for as long as you hold the fund.

3. Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you redeem or switch units of the fund.

| Fee | What you pay |
|------------------------|--|
| Short-term trading fee | Up to 2% of the value of units you redeem or switch within 90 days of investing in the fund. |
| Switch fee | You may make up to 12 free switches in each calendar year and after that you may be charged a fee. |

What if I change my mind?

You can change your mind and cancel the investment fund contract, the initial pre-authorized chequing premium or any lump-sum premium you apply to the policy by telling us in writing within two business days of the earlier of the date you received confirmation of the transaction or five business days after it is mailed to you.

Your cancellation request has to be in writing, which can include email or letter. The amount returned will be the lesser of the amount of the premium being cancelled or the value of the applicable units acquired on the day we process your request. The amount returned only applies to the specific transaction and will include a refund of any sales charges or other fees you paid.
